

{ ABOUT }

A fusion of hard rock, reggae and early 80's punk, Stuntditch has a sound that resonates with a new generation in music. Their unbridled passion and raw energy fuels any listener on an entirely new level. Each live performance is completely uninhibited, which makes anyone at their show feel like they are a part of something new and fresh.

Stuntditch cut their teeth in May 2006 landing key gigs in only a few months. They brought the party to the locals of North Carolina's Outer Banks, surf competitions in New Jersey, main stage venues in Philadelphia and rock clubs throughout New York City. In addition, the three-piece has independently released an eleven-track debut album, Texan Grin, and a subsequent self-titled EP. Stuntditch has toured along the east coast playing with such acts as ASG, SOJA, McRad, Smiles Project and many others.

Texan Grin was recorded at Burndown Studios in Philadelphia, PA and was engineered and produced by Dave Quicks (Burn Down-Allstars). Their subsequent EP, Stuntditch, was recorded at Metropolitan Studios in Philadelphia, PA with producer Walter Bass (Ruffnation Music) and was mastered at the Mastering House in Pottstown, PA

by Tom Volpicelli (Bloodhound Gang, Iggy Pop, Pat Benatar). Each track by Stuntditch has a unique feel, which makes for a truly diverse and engaging music experience. Stuntditch brings attitude and positive energy, whether in the studio or on stage. Their charisma, work ethic, and burning desire to play will keep them on the road and put them into the hearts of all music fans.
